

National Museum of Natural History
(Ministry of Environment & Forests, Govt. of India)
New Delhi

WINTER NATURE CAMP-2012
(12th, 13th & 14th January, 2012)

Programme Venue: Asola Wildlife Sanctuary, Delhi

Purpose: To make children aware of Delhi's Natural Heritage
To observe Natural Flora & Fauna at Asola Wildlife Sanctuary.

Participants: 15 school children from classes VII, VIII & IX and 2 officials from NMNH

Selection: Advertisement in local newspapers inviting school children for Registration followed by face to face interaction before making final selection.

Itinerary: Boarding and Lodging arrangement at Asola Wildlife Sanctuary will be done by the ETF at Bhatti Mines. The girls and boys will have separate dormitories. Senior officials from the Forest Department and BNHS will interact with the participants.
Photo documentation, Survey of Biodiversity of Bhatti Mines, Bird watching, Study of plants, Observing Butterflies and Film shows on environment are some of the activities included during the nature camp.

Date of Registration at
National Museum of Natural History, Tansen Marg, Mandi House, New Delhi-1
3rd, 4th & 5th January, 2012

- i) Students from classes VII, VIII & IX are only eligible.
- ii) Attach 2 passport size Photographs and a copy of School ID card.
- iii) No Registration Fees
- iv) Registration Time: 11.00 am to 3.00 pm

Date of Final Selection

7th January, 2012
(Face to Face Interaction)
Time: 10.30 am to 1.30 pm

Final List of Selected Participants

8th January, 2012
(List can be checked on our website)

Orientation about the Nature Camp

11th January, 2012
(11:00 am to 1:00 pm)

Nature Camp

Asola Wildlife Sanctuary, Delhi
12th, 13th & 14th January, 2012
(Two nights & Three days)

For more details contact:

Division of Educational Services
National Museum of Natural History, Tansen Marg, Mandi House, New Delhi-1
Phone Nos.- 23753235, 23314849, 23311804
E-mail: nmnh.edu5678@gmail.com
Website: www.nmnh.nic.in