Awareness Programme
50 YEARS OF PROJECT TIGER

REPORT
03-12 April 2023

Awareness Campaign on 50 years celebration of “Project Tiger” by National Museum of Natural History and its Regional Museums

National Museum of Natural History and its Regional Museums organized an awareness campaign on 50 years of celebration of “Project Tiger”. The aim of the programmes was to create awareness among school children and disseminate brief knowledge to sensitize children about the importance of protecting and conserving Tigers for the healthy ecosystems. In this awareness campaign NMNH and its regional centers were able to reach-out 33,072 children/students throughout the country.

The details of the day wise campaign and list of schools covered along with glimpses of the programme:
